Product short description:

Open top refrigerator to enhance your beverage promotion in high traffic areas. With eye-catching branding on the body of the refrigerator matching your product image, it will definitely be the focal point of the point of sale and attract the attention of the younger generation of consumers. With three sides of clear glass, the multi-level refrigerator can fully display the beverages it contains. The open top design further increases product visibility and allows for better sales conversion. The temperature stability of the open top promotional refrigerator is guaranteed by its powerful dynamic cooling system. You can even choose to add colored LED light strips inside the cooler to enhance the branding effect and make your drink stand out in the market.
