Product short description:

The great thing about this refrigerated workbench is that you create extra workspace for preparing your dishes and also have room to cool your products. This refrigerated workbench has 2 doors and with 220 liters capacity, it offers quite a lot of space to work and cool. It has an automatic defrost and adjustable legs. The motor is under the cooling system and you can hardly hear it. You can easily keep your workbench clean and also the cabinets underneath are hygienically clean in no time.
